

It Matters

"Parents, families, and community members play a very important role in the education system. It is important for them to realize how much influence they can have over students and schools, especially when they become involved in school matters."

Roles and Responsibilities of Parent Advisory Councils

Councils is a MAPC presentation meant to support your Parent Council group with identifying the key functions of an effective PAC. Learn the difference between an ACSL and a PAC and what the roles are of an executive. We will also discuss succession planning to ensure your Parent Council group remains strong through transition.

MAPC Mission Statement

To support, promote, and enhance meaningful involvement and participation of parents in order to improve the education and well-being of children in Manitoba.
